Box Profanely Denies Committee Exists To Select WT President

Angered when questioned about a search committee appointed to look for a new president for West Texas State University, Board Chairman Cloyce K. Box Tuesday night profanely denied the existence of such a committee.

"Print any G- - D- - - thing you want to print," Box lashed out at a Canyon News reporter.

"I don't like your approach. I have no comment to make.

"You called up to tell me how to run my G- - D- - - business. Just go back and ask the people you got your information from for anything else you want to know."

Box mentioned a prominent member of the university administration. "If he told you, he doesn't know anything about it."

A list of people reported to be on the committee was read to the board chairman.

"I don't see any purpose to be served for these people to be harassed," Box stated tacitly admitting the existence of such a committee.

Box reiterated that there is no search committee looking for material for a president for West Texas State University.

"There is no search committee," he asserted, "and there will be no committee doing any interviewing except the board of regents."

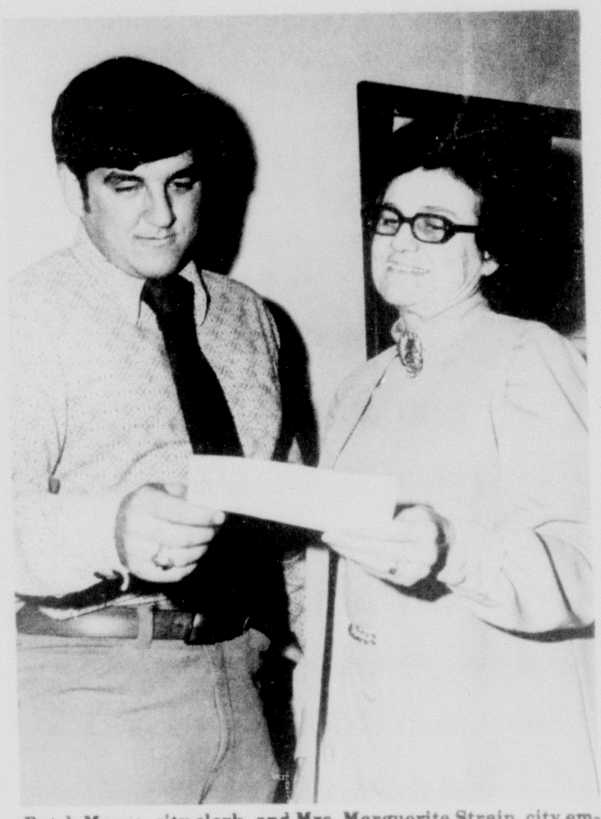
The News received information earlier this week that a committee does exist. It is reported to be made up of Bill Montgomery, with Shamrock Corporation, Amarillo; Pat Malone, Hereford First National Bank; Wayne Rankin, Plainview, president of the WTSU ex-students association; Dr. John Green, Dean of the WTSU School of Fine Arts; Jerry Miller, head of the faculty council; and Bob Lee, president of the WTSU student body.

"Some of that information is wrong," said Box thereby confirming at least a part of the list.

Box was appointed chairman of the regents by Governor Preston Smith when the first board was formed. He is an all-time Buffalo football great and played in the pros with the Detroit Lions.

Box heads the vast OKC Corporation.

Cattle in the area haven't fared too well during the current blast of cold and snow but things could have been much worse had cutting winds also swept through the Panhandle.



Butch Moore, city clerk, and Mrs. Marguerite Strain, city employee, look over a $43,000 check the city received Tuesday from the federal government as Canyon's part of revenue-sharing. County officials also received a check — their's for $40,000.

Stock Show Starts Fri., Ends Sat.

The 25th annual Randall County Junior Livestock Show begins Friday with judging of horses and continues through Saturday with judging event after judging event.

Committees of the junior livestock association are expected to spend much of the day today at the livestock building in north Canyon preparing for the onslaught of youngsters and their animals this weekend.

County Agent John Brazzil said animals will begin arriving at the building at 8 a.m. Friday and by 5 p.m. Friday all entries in the show will be in place.

The first actual judging will be of horses at 4:30 p.m. Friday at the horse pavillion a mile north of Canyon on the West Texas State University horse center. Larry Kasten of the WTSU school of agriculture will judge the horses.

The big day for the show will be Saturday.

The Canyon Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a breakfast beginning at 6:30 a.m. Saturday for exhibitors and their families in the community center.

Swine judging begins at 9 a.m. Saturday with about 100 entries expected. Scottie L. Windom of Lazbuddie will be judge.

Judging of dairy heifers will follow at 1 p.m. with W. B. Weatherly of Shamrock the judge. Number of entries is not known at this time.

The dairy heifer judging will be followed by the judging of lamb at 1:30 p.m. with about 45 entries expected. Rick Kellison, of the Texas Tech Research Center at Pantex, will be judged.

At 3 p.m., about 21 steers will be judged by Charles Beedy, retired county agent from Stinnett.

Beedy will also judge the beef heifers at 4 p.m. with six entries anticipated.

The sale will be at 6:30 p.m. in the livestock building and awards will also be given.

Prior to the sale, the junior livestock building will be formally renamed in honor of the

If stairways could only talk. . .the only remaining portion of the old Gerald Hotel located at the corner of 4th Ave. and 19th St. could probably add a great deal to area history. The building is being dismantled to make way for a church parking lot.

Look Outside For Next Head, New Regent Says

West Texas State University's newest member of the board of regents said Tuesday he believes the next president of the university should probably be chosen from outside the current WTSU staff, administration and faculty.

Kent L. Hance, 30, who was named Monday to replace Grady Hazlewood on the board of regents for the university, told The News that WTSU must have dynamic leadership.

"Unless somebody there is really outstanding, I think we need to bring somebody in," he said. "Somebody already there would have trouble, I think, providing the kind of leadership we need."

Hance was appointed Monday by Gov. Preston Smith to fill the unexpired term of former state senator Hazlewood, who resigned.

Hazlewood had been appointed by the governor last year to serve until August 1977 as a regent.

The former senator was responsible for introducing a bill in the state legislature which created the separate board of regents for WTSU several years ago.

Hazlewood reportedly resigned from the board due to business reasons.

His replacement is a young Lubbock attorney who grew up in Dimmitt and at one time contemplated attending WTSU.

Hance, a Texas Tech and University of Texas graduate, said one of his personal objectives as a regent will be to seek more cooperation between Tech and WTSU particularly in the area of sports.

"I want to see Tech and WT get back together particularly in football and basketball," he said. "I think this is something people would like to see."

Hance said he will seek a renewal of the old Tech-WT football rivalry, which he said would not only give a good game to area fans but which would also be financially valuable.

He said he will also seek strengthened cooperation between the two universities in matters dealing with the state legislature.

"I think there's room for two large multi-purpose state universities out here," he said.

Hance graduated from Dimmitt High School in 1961 and began the decision process to pick either WTSU or Texas Tech to attend.

"I had to have a job," he said. "All summer I applied to businesses in both places and I finally found a job in Lubbock."

With the location of a job, the decision on which college to attend followed and Hance ended up at Texas Tech.

He later became vice president of the student body and following his graduation, he went to the University of Texas Law School.

He's a 1968 graduate of UT. While attending law school, he was president of the student bar association and president of his class.

Following graduation, he returned to Lubbock where he established his law practice.

Currently, he is a director of the Southwest Rotary Club in Lubbock, is a member of the state Criminal Justice Commission and associate state chairman of the March of Dimes.

He is a member of the Lubbock First Baptist Church and is associate state president of the Texas Junior Bar Association.

He and his wife, Carol, have a son, Ron, 7, and a daughter, Susan, 3. They live in Lubbock.

County, City Get Second Fed Check

Randall County and the City of Canyon received their second federal revenue-sharing checks Tuesday.

The checks were about 4 per cent lower than checks received by county and city officials in December.

The checks are for the second half of 1972.

City Manager George Loudder said the city received a second federal check for $43,591, "exactly 4 per cent less than the other check we received."

With the second check, the city has received a total of $89,020 for the first year of a proposed five-year revenue sharing plan.

Randall County received a check for $40,197, about 4 per cent less than their first check for $41,891. Randall County has received a total of $82,088 in federal funds.

Loudder said he has returned a request from the Treasury Department indicating discrepancies in some figures used to compute the city's revenue-sharing funds.

He said the discrepancies "are probably not very significant since they apply to a small part of the formula used."

Officials here received last week an explanation of the formula used to figure their federal checks. But, they say, they still need to receive state figures to be able to thoroughly check the correctness of the Official Outlines WT Recruiting Efforts

A West Texas State University vice president outlined Monday night the university's efforts at attracting students and called on the board of Canyon's Chamber of Commerce for support and help in those efforts.

Dr. Kenneth Laycock, vice president for planning and development, reviewed several possible reasons for the university's decline in enrollment and told Chamber directors the university is making strides in attracting students from across the state to attend classes here.

Historically, he said, state institutions have shown significant growth with minimum recruitment efforts. But, that position has changed in recent years as state institutions — including WTSU — have experienced declining enrollments.

Now, WTSU must seek a place in the competitive business of attracting students to its campus to study.

"We're trying to stabilize our enrollment and then increase it," he said.

Laycock outlined several possible reasons for the loss of about 1500 students in two years at the university.

"Look at the general decline in

Commissioners, Judge Give Selves Salary Hike

County commissioners gave themselves, the county judge and just about every other county employee a raise through action Monday.

County Judge Woody Pond said the raises amounted to an across-the-board salary hike of about 5.2 per cent for county elected officials and employees.

The salaries are for 1973.

Nine persons didn't get raises, most of them secretaries and employees like the veteran service officer and county health officer who do not draw full salaries from the county.

Sheriff Cliff Longest did not receive a raise.

County commissioners John Fulgenzi, Bill Butler, Jim Fletcher and Paul Lindsey voted themselves a $50 per month raise. In 1972, the commissioners made $440 per month plus $100 car allowance. Now, they make $490 per month plus car allowance.

County Judge Pond's salary remained the same — at $850 from the county and $215 from the county school district — but he now receives a $75 per month car allowance.

Key department heads, County Clerk LeRoy Hutton, District Clerk Laquitta Polvadore, Tax Assessor-Collector Audrey Bruse and Dist. Atty. George Dowlen all received substantial raises.

Hutton, Mrs. Polvadore and Mrs. Bruse received $60 per month raises — from $715 monthly plus $75 car allowance to $775 per month plus $75 car allowance.

Dowlen, the highest paid county employee, received a $34 per month raise from $1166 per month plus $100 car allowance to $1200 plus $100 car allowance.

Justices of the Peace W. A. "Bill" Wilson and W. W. Hancock received $40 per month raises from $610 plus $50 car allowance to $650 plus $50 car allowance.

Sheriff's deputies received a $20 per month raise from $710 to $730.

The county's 15 road maintenance workers received $25 raises per month.

District Judges Don Dean and E. E. "Gene" Jordan received $5 per month raises.

Their court reporters, for whom the judges had requested raises last fall, received raises totalling about $20 each per month.

Commissioners had balked last fall on raising the salaries of the court reporters.

Key employees and their salaries for 1972 and 1973 are:

LeRoy Hutton — $715 + $75 (1972) and $775 + $75 (1973)

Audrey Bruse — $715 + $75 (1972) and $775 + $75 (1973)

John Guthrie, chief deputy, tax office — $575 (1972) and $610 (1973)

Laquitta Polvadore — $715 + $75 (1972) and $775 + $75 (1973)

George Dowlen — $1166 + $100; $1200 + $100

Robert McClendon, assistant Dist. Atty. — $835; $850

Jim Blair, assistant Dist. Atty. — $835; $850

Ruth Hill, treasurer — $645;

Co. Clerk Asks Closed Session

County Clerk LeRoy Hutton first called for a meeting of the county's salary grievance committee and then changed his mind and asked for closed-door meeting of department heads to discuss mutual problems during regular session of commissioners court here Monday.

Commissioners were on the verge of considering salary increases for county employees, when Hutton handed County Judge Woody Pond a letter requesting the grievance committee be convened.

Pond read the letter aloud then turned to Hutton:

"I don't see anything specific in here that we need to talk about salaries," he said, noting that the county grievance committee meets only to discuss salary grievances.

Hutton said he called for a meeting of the grievance committee primarily because business conducted by that committee is closed to the press.

He said he really seeks a meeting of county department heads to discuss budgeting, personnel and other problems and to help plan for the future.

But, he said, he's not in favor of the meeting being open to the public.

Chamber Seeks City Merchant Unity

A director of the Chamber of Commerce called for unity among the city's merchants and other directors responded to his call by forming a special committee as a vehicle for that unity during the chamber board's regular session Monday night.

"I feel like something is needed to bring the merchants of the town together," said Ken Thompson, manager of a local store.

Thompson called for formation of a retail merchants committee for the chamber, a committee to promote the retail businesses in town as a group.

Canyon for years has had a Downtown Merchants Association and an Uptown Merchants Association was recently formed by merchants in the south 23rd Street area.

"I think we need it badly," said another merchant, Jerry Williams, who operates a business on the downtown square. "I think the individual associations don't have the strength they need behind them."

"I think the committee is the only way to get something done," Thompson said.

Directors approved the suggestion and formed the committee.

Thompson presented a list of nine local merchants, several from the downtown area, several from the south 23rd Street area and several from the area around West Texas State University to

Counseller Named To All-State Team

Bob Counseller, 6-5, 220 lineman for the Canyon Eagles football squad, was one of only three non-seniors named to the 1972 All-State football team.

Twice picked as a member of the All-District team in 1-AAA, Counseller was named on the defensive unit.

Coach Ron Mills expressed pride that Counseller was chosen for the elite squad. "We're real proud of Bob and he is real deserving," said the head coach.

Line coach Earl Clardy said he was also proud of his lineman who operated at both end and tackle this past season. "I think it's his speed and size that did it," said Clardy. "He's real fast for a boy his size."

Clardy added that he was extremely proud to have a lineman gain such an honor in his first year of varsity coaching.

Both coaches said the 1972 team, which included four first team All-District picks and eight Honorable Mentions, also had other good players. They also agreed that Counseller had been

Glenn Dowlen To Be Honored

Glenn Dowlen, who served the county as commissioner for 22 years before retiring this year, will be honored by the commissioners court at 11 a.m. Monday in the courthouse.

County Judge Woody Pond said the public is invited to the coffee honoring Dowlen.

The retiring commissioner will be presented a plaque and court resolution.

Dowlen did not seek re-election to the commissioners court last fall.

by Troy Martin FROM THE CANYON RIM

I took a good country cussing from West Texas State University Board Chairman Cloyce K. Box Tuesday night.

I should feel honored. I've been threatened by a police chief, beaten up by the father of a convicted felon who took a dim view of my prose and slapped up the side of the head by a secretary accused of making off with funds but this is the first time I've ever been cussed out by the president of a real honest to goodness conglomerate.

Cloyce is head of the vast OKC with holdings over who knows what part of the globe. Surely OKC has some mule ranches among its properties for no mule skinner ever conversed in more picturesque terms than those in which Cloyce addressed me Tuesday night.

I've been on the receiving end most of my newspaper career. This is one of the few cases in which I'm convinced it is more blessed to receive than to give. It didn't bother me a bit. I went home and slept like a log.

Have another s.o.b. on me, Cloyce.

I touched the board chairman off when I called to talk to him about a search committee reported to have been appointed to screen or look for applicants to fill the WTSU presidency soon to be vacated by retirement of Dr. James P. Cornette.

I was stunned when Mr. Box flew into a rage. I honestly cannot recall anything I might have said to anger him.

The incident could be dismissed as humorous and trivial, soon to be forgotten, if it involved only me and Mr. Box.

But it doesn't.

It involves West Texas State University and that involves us all.

The term of Mr. Box as a regent expires in 1975. He can go back to Frisco and forget it if he chooses. For better or for worse the Panhandle of Texas must live with whoever is appointed president of West Texas State University.

Tenure of presidents at WTSU is lengthy. The institution has had only three in the 63-year span of its history.

I can't understand the secrecy surrounding such a vital selection. Future of the institution, Canyon and the Panhandle may well be in the balance.

I was concerned by two statements made to me on the telephone by Mr. Box Tuesday night.

The first was his accusation that I was telling him how to run "his business." Actually, I was asking, not telling.

Also, it is my impression that the university is the business of the people of Texas who finance its operation and whose children attend its classes.

"If I had wanted you to know anything about it I would have told you," was another statement that gave me pause for thought.

These statements combined bring to mind another statement by Mr. Box two years ago after the firing of Head Football Coach Joe Kerbel.

Box took full responsibility saying his influence prevailed over other members of the board.

"I would have done the same thing if Kerbel had been in the top 10," he asserted.

I only hope that Mr. Box hasn't confused the ownership of the university with that of OKC for which he can speak with such positive authority.

I hope that when a president for WTSU is selected it will be done by the board as a whole and not as a one-man appointment.

I appreciate the efforts of Mr. Box as chairman of the board. I realize that he is an over worked executive who gives his talent at a personal sacrifice.

I would not minimize his value to the university either as a member of the board or as a distinguished alumni.

In spite of this, the fact remains that Mr. Box through anger and intemperate language tried to intimidate The Canyon News. This newspaper will not be intimidated.

I hope others with public trust around him will likewise refuse to be intimidated.

I think it is time for another look at the $100 a month car expense allotted Randall County commissioners.

The expense account was established to pay expenses of commissioners inspecting county roads which they were responsible for maintaining.

Commissioner John Fulgenzi tells me that he inspects roads in his precinct about once every two weeks. Then most of the inspection tour is in a county pickup truck.

John says that about 30 per cent of the county roads are located in his precinct and about the same amount in Commissioner Jim Fletcher's precinct. The remainder is in the precinct served by Commissioner Paul Lindsey.

Commissioner Bill Butler's precinct has no county roads at all.

Anyway, a couple of years back the commissioners hired a road superintendent to take over the road chores but they kept drawing the $100 a month expenses.

Fulgenzi says members of the court need to draw the money because when they take out of town trips on county business the expense allowance is not enough.

This is the same excuse used by members of the legislature for taking stamps from the legislature's contingent expense fund and then converting them to private use.

I'm not kicking about the commissioners getting the $100. I think if it is paid out as expenses then every dime of it should be accounted for and audited.

Slush funds and unaudited expense accounts pave the way to abuse and eventual corruption.

We have a good county government. I don't want to see it subverted.

Levi Cole says this winter compares to that of 1918 when snow stayed on the ground for six months. Levi, somewhat of a Plains pioneer, says we have had nothing like the present spell in the past 54 years.

I drove up to the Mr. Burger about 8:30 Tuesday night. It was spitting snow and the parking area was vacant.

I asked Patty Ormsby to make me a hamburger.

"All right," she said with a cheerful smile. "When I call number one, you can come and get your order."

Snow Continues To Fall Here

Snow continued to fall Wednesday on top of almost a week's accumulation during a winter which some old-timers have termed the worst since the early part of this century.

Despite heavy snowfall through the early part of the week, winds, which could prove to be the difference between a bad and terrible snow session, were below 10 miles per hour.

Heavy snowfall over the weekend set the stage for the even more snow at mid-week.

The sun never shone over the county throughout the early to middle part of the week and the temperatures never rose above the sub-freezing mark.

So, snow on streets and highways didn't melt and driving remained hazardous throughout the Panhandle area.

School bus drivers took it easy as they carried children into Canyon's schools from the county area and some classes at the high school, junior high and elementary schools experienced tardy students.

Principals at the Canyon schools said absences were about normal for a snowy season and that disease has not taken a toll on school attendance.

For county cattlemen, the snow offered just one more in a series of weather events which have stymied wheat growth and availability.

But, County Agent John Brazzil said the newest snow is hardly more than an inconvenience. He said wind speeds have been low enough that cattle have not been seriously hurt by the weather.

Police officials and sheriff's officers report that local residents must be gaining experience from the snow because traffic accidents have not notably increased in numbers.

More snow is expected today with chances for snow lessening as the week wears on.

Winds were predicted to increase in intensity Wednesday night and today by U.S. Weather Service officials.

Highs today are to be in the teens and lows this week in the sub-teens.

Buffs Meet Bradley In MVC Clash Tonite

West Texas State's Buffaloes seek to break a four-game losing streak this week when they open Missouri Valley Conference basketball play for the first time with a pair of clashes in Amarillo's civic center coliseum.

The Buffs face Bradley at 7:30 p.m. today and then play Drake's bulldogs at noon on Saturday in a game which will be telecast throughout the Missouri Valley Conference television network.

After winning their first six games of the season, the Buffs lost on the road to Long Island University in New York's Madison Square Garden. Last week they fell three times on a trip to South Texas. They lost to Trinity, 54-52, to nationally-ranked Houston, 130-84, and to Wichita State, 88-82.

Bradley will bring a 6-5 record into the Thursday clash and is 0-2 in Valley competition. The Braves fell 82-73 to Tulsa and 76-74 to MVC favorite Memphis State in their two-conference outings.

Leading the Braves was MVC sophomore of the year from last season Seymour Reed, a 6-6 junior from Lincoln, Ill. He is scoring 16 points per game and averaging 9.8 rebounds.

Jim Carruthers, a fleet freshman guard from Kansas City is leading the team in scoring with a 16.6 average.

Tommy Jordan leads West Texas with a 19.5 scoring mark. Reginald Ramey, a 6-8 freshman, is scoring 16.6 and averaging 12.2 rebounds.

Senior Jerry Christian, who has a 14.8 scoring average and is second in rebounding, has been slowed this week in practice by a back injury which fails to disappear. Christian's back has given him trouble at various times, starting with the first game of the season against Corpus Christi when he was able to play only 35 seconds.

Saturday will be Pampa Day in Amarillo's civic center coliseum, with the Pampa High School Band performing in the absence of the WTSU band which is off for semester break.

Drake, which boasts four players in its starting lineup shooting over 50 per cent, is one of the quicker teams in the Missouri Valley Conference.

Forward Craig Davis is shooting a phenomenal 76.2 per cent from the field, hitting 48 of 63 field goal attempts.

The 6-5 forward from East Moline, Ill., is averaging 9.9 points per game.

Senior Forward Dennis Bell passes Drake in both scoring and rebounding by hitting 15.6 points per game and 12.4 rebounds.

9th Purple Beats White

The junior high's purple teams played the white teams this week and in all grades but the 9th, the white teams won.

In 9th grade action, the purple team beat the white 38 to 29. Louise Davis led the purple team scoring by pumping 14 points through the hoops. Vickie Gerber scored 13, Cathy Gardner scored 8 and Cary Camfield hit 3.

The 9th grade white team was paced by the scoring of Robena Johnson, who hit 15 points, followed by Marci Davis with 6, Nickie Abbott with 6 and Jo Angela Groves with 2.

The 8th grade white team edged past the purple team by a 41-34 score with Becky Williams leading white scoring with 24 points. Lisa Cathey hit 11 for the winners followed by Vickie Miller with 4 and Melinda Jones with 2.

Pam Woolsey hit 23 for the losing purple team followed by June Carlton with 6, Debby Johnson with 3 and Tammy Blewett with 2.

In 7th grade action, the white team won by a slim 5-point margin, 28-23, with white action led by high scorer Glenda Williams with 18 points. Kim Wallace hit 10 for the winners.

Susie Booth tossed in 10 points for the 7th purple followed by Shari Booth with 7 and Janet Brown with 6.

The junior high freshmen go into their own tournament this weekend here.

All three grades' teams play Dumas Monday at Dumas.

Area People Return From Ski Slopes And Sunny Climes

By TROYCE MULHERIN

WE MUST BID adieu to another Gene Howe lovely. Elizabeth Meers has retired from Room 40 at Gene Howe with plans to be a homebody rather than a physical education instructor for a while. Elizabeth and her husband, Lewis, make their home in Canyon. We will miss this charming lady's lovely smile around the ol' school building.

THE SNOW AND cold did not deter the enthusiasm of Sheila Hicks' birthday party. Momma Phyllis said they were quite accustomed to partying in the cold, as few of Sheila's birthdays have been greeted by the rays of the sun. The day Sheila was born, she was greeted with twenty-nine degree below zero temperatures and gobs of snow — the event taking place in Colorado. Her birthday party took place at the skating rink with Carla Schmidt, Kelli Campbell, Gina Moore, Andrea Sorelle, Kaki Mulherin, Karol and John Hicks braving the weather to take their risks on the ol' roller skates. A perfect way to wind up the holidays. Many more happies, Sheila.

FOR THOSE OF you who desperately wanted a darling puppie dog for Christmas and were disappointed, this is the grand and glorious opportunity to fulfill that desire. Gene Howe's librarian, Miss Elizabeth Wilson just happens to have eleven of the cutest and darlingest three-fourths German Sheppard and one-fourth Collie doggies wanting someone to love them. The pups are six weeks old and ready for a family all their very own. Elizabeth says the puppies are marked like Sheppards and have that type nose, etc. Give Elizabeth a ring-a-ling at 353-2484 after school hours and make arrangements to pick up your very own bundle of happiness.

LOY AND TOM Gerald III took in some skiing during the holidays. They and Tom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Tom Gerald, Jr., Tom's sister, Nancy Gerald, from San Antonio, and Tom's brother, John, a ninth grade student in Amarillo, gave Angel Fire a whirl. On to Red River for snow fun. This was the first time out for Loy and after a few lessons, she was coming down the big ones. Skis first. Daughter Ginger mastered the bunny hill and then moved on to bigger things, too. The truth of the matter is that Loy really had no choice about challenging old man mountain after little Ginger led the way. Somewhat unsettling to see your kindergarten age daughter blithly skiing down the ones you are somewhat apprehensive of attempting. All the Geralds had a grand time, tho, and came home with happy memories (and no broken bones). Oh, yes, you might ask Loy about her encounter on the ski lift next time you see her. (Must be more action on the lifts than on the slopes).

DARLENE CAMPBELL AND darling daughters, Kelli and Darla, took a big bird to warmer climes to welcome in the New Year. They met Deral and Dot Wakefield at Padre Island for a few days in the sun. Lazied around on the beach, collected some shells, and drank fresh orange juice. The group took a jaunt to Matamoros for some sightseeing before driving to Denton and a few day's visiting in the Wakefield's home. The snow and cold which greeted them at the airport when they returned home quickly brought them back to reality in more ways than one. Glad to have the Campbells home and cold like the rest of us. Do you detect just a smite of envy?

DALE AND BARBARA Young and youngsters visited with his mom and dad in Hope, N.M., for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Young were celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary and our Youngs were more than happy to help with the partying. Daddy Dale returned home to keep watch over the homefires while Barbara and Larry, Bryan, Mark, Kendall, Timothy and Scott went on to Pear Valley to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L.D. Browning. Young Scott had to make a brief visit to the hospital, but soon recovered from his illness and joined in on being properly spoiled by the Brownings.

WILMA AND BILL Hall treated themselves and their youngsters to an extra special Christmas present, namely, a two-week vacation in warm California. On the way, the Halls stopped in El Paso for some Christmas partying with her folks. On to San Diego where they headquartered with Ross and Charlene Turner and youngsters, Butch and Janann. Ross, a Navy man himself, contributed his share to the "cause for celebrating" by being promoted to Chief. Congrats, Ross. Johnny, Mary and Stan Hall were given the royal tour by the Turners, taking in Knott's Berry Farm, Disney Land, the San Diego Zoo and Sea World. A side trip to Tijuana added immeasurably to this memory-making vacation. In other words, the Halls had a blast, and enjoyed every minute of their Christmas present to themselves.

SOME PEOPLE WE worry about more than others. Sandra and Jerral Hicks fall in this category. Anyone who would travel to Monarch, Colo., just to get to ski in weather hosting a chill factor of minus fifty degrees deserves to be worried about. While in Colorado, Sandra did get to do something she has wanted to do for a long time — twice, too — cross the Royal Gorge Bridge, a suspension bridge 1053 feet above the chasm. After creaking across the first time, the Hickses found the road to their destination was closed, and they either "got" or "had" to recross the bridge. Take your choice of words. Back to Big A to work a day, and then on to Red River for several more days of skiing. Lots of fun and no broken calcium deposit sites.

FIND YOUR GENE Howe directory and add Carol Hollingsworth on the page titled "Faculty." As you all know, Carol is our Kindergarten lady. Her address is 1912 S. Tyler, and telephone number is 372-3444. If there are any more additions or corrections needing to be noted, call and it shall be done.

MARGUERITE GREEN HAD a bout with a butcher knife on New Year's day, and her left hand emerged the victim of the battle. Took a few stitches to put it all together, and the swelling and discoloration is gradually diminishing. Something good comes of everything (someone once said) and Marguerite is getting some help with the dishes, if that's any consolation.

DARLYNE AND GEORGE Bell joined with her folks for a family reunion in Clovis over the holidays. Darlyne's mommy, Mrs. Esther Bombarger hosted the festivities. The Bell youngsters spent a week with their grandmother. All was not serene on ye ol' homefront, tho. Darlyne and George awoke one cold, snowy morn to find that the heater had gone on the blinkie and they had to have the wiring replaced in same. That's not all, on another cold and snowy day the electricity went on vacation — no heat, no water, no eating. Oh, yes, while the heater was out, someone (we won't say it was George who did it) turned all the burners on the range up to full blast in an attempt to warm up a bit. Guess what — the wall around the range got warm enough for some of the tile to become dislodged. In a vain attempt to get away from it all, Darlyne went to work only to find her Federal auditor paying his annual visit. Oh, well, the sun will shine someday.

HIGHLIGHTING THE HOLIDAYS for Sherrie Cates and sons was the wedding of her niece, Shanna McCartney of West, Texas, which is located just outside of Waco. Shanna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K.K. Heitmiller, and was wed to Richard Cernosek, also of West. Wedding colors were Copenhagen blue and white, and Sherrie said the floral decorations were absolutely beautiful. Ronnie served as an usher, and the Cates really enjoyed the rehearsal dinner held at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Approximately four hundred people attended the wedding and the reception, at which dinner was served, followed by dancing and festive festivities. The newlyweds flew to California for a few days before resuming school activities at East Texas State. Back home for the Cates, excepting Jeff, who promptly took himself off skiing in Red River.

SEVERAL GENE HOWE peoples were installed in various offices at a recent banquet held in the Community Center at Canyon by the Randall County Sheriff's Posse. Installation services were performed by Mr. Raymond Raillard, President of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce. Our own Wayne Wallis was installed as president; Jim Scott is vice president; Blaine Hufnagle is secretary; treasurer is Ewing Clayton; Jim Plain will serve as Parade Marshall, and Archie Davis is Assistant Parade Marshall. Tommy Platt was installed as Director of Junior Deputies; and Emil Olson and Leroy Gross were installed as members of the Board. Coronation of this year's queen, Miss Connie Davis, was performed by the past queen, Miss Kathy Hufnagle. Mr. and Mrs. Wes Ninemire attended the banquet as guests. Kendra Wallis entertained with several musical selections on the piano.

SHERIFF CLIFF LONGEST is Honorary Chairman of the organization and performs the annual deputizing of the members of the Sheriff's Posse. While visiting with Mrs. Jean Wallis, she related that the Posse members do have the responsibility of being the Sheriff's Posse and do lend their aid when called upon. The menfolk are the only ones deputized, but their families are associate members and join in on the fun activities (and the attendant work). In addition to activities fostering interest in horsemanship, finding lost souls in Palo Duro Canyon, and coming to the aid of stranded motorists, etc., the Posse sponsors the annual Pony Express race, which is a part of a national tournament. This organization has a fine slate of officers, and its members are looking forward to another excellent year.

HI, DORIS.

FOR ALL OF you who tried to call and chat and found the telephone number tweren't the rite one, dial 352-6053 this time around — not 362-6053.

HAVE IT ON good authority — the sun will shine again! That's a promise.

THANKS FOR THE use of the hall.

Priscilla Club Has Meeting

Canyon's Priscilla Club met last week in the home of Mrs. A. K. Goodman and spent the afternoon working on various handiwork projects.

As hostess, Mrs. Goodman served a dessert course and coffee.

Those attending were Mrs. Alfred Bellah, Mrs. Lonnie Byars, Mrs. Clay Cooper, Mrs. A. M. Cunningham, Mrs. D. N. Foster, Mrs. W. F. Haggard, Mrs. Tom Knighton, Mrs. Dudley Moore, Mrs. Florene Moore, Mrs. H. M. Stokes, Mrs. T. S. Stevenson, and Mrs. Floyd Tomlinson.

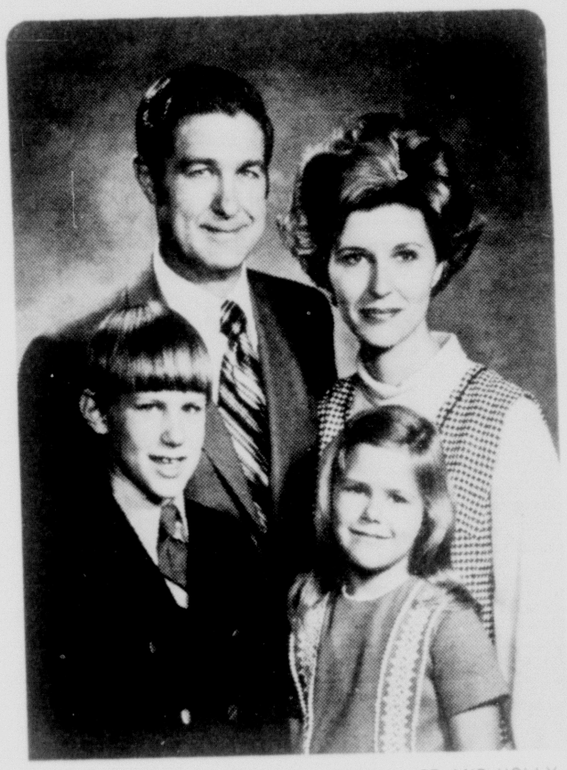
Special guest was Mrs. R. L. Grigsby.

Next meeting of the club will be a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Cunningham at 12:30 p.m. Feb. 7.

Extra Calendars Still On Sale

The Canyon Band Parents have several extra band calendars for sale at $1.00 each.

Persons who have not received their ordered calendars or those who would like to buy calendars may call Mr. King, band director, at 655-9287, or 655-3734, or Mrs. Darlene Finke, at 352-2971.



THE SHERMANS — LYNN, MAX, GENE ALICE AND HOLLY

A Message from State Senator
Max SHERMAN

When first elected to the Texas Senate, my pledge was to listen to the people and to work hard at representing their interests in the Texas Senate. As the 63rd Legislature begins its work, I would like to renew that pledge and ask you to keep in touch and to let me know how I can best represent you.

Sincerely,

Max Sherman

Girls Team Up To Learn Cooking

By TOOTIE BYBEE

HI THERE, ALL you Eskimos, and how does the snow find you these days? Did someone say Winter, what is that?? Goodness what a messy winter this has turned out to be. Almost makes one want to walk, run or jump to Florida. Just hang in there for about four months or 120 days til, pant, pant, Spring!! Will it really come?

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO Christy Allen who celebrated with a bowling and slumber party along with nine other friends and a brave mother and dad. From what I understand it was really a bang up good time til 5:00 in the morning. Those helping to celebrate were: Tammy Kelly, Tammy Thompson, Lisa Erwin, Kay Tow, Cindy Baily, Leslie Bybee, Janice Delaney, Teresa True, Pam Thrash and of course the birthday girl, Christy Allen.

ANOTHER VERY HAPPY to my little Lenise, and her daddy Sam who just happen to share the same date. Nothing like being born on your Dad's birthday and being a second girl, of all things. Love them both.

THE MITCHELLS HAD an unusual and busy holiday break. Seems they remodeled their house during the vacation time. Took down a wall here and a wall there and made a most lovely and huge den from three rooms. When you come in the back door it seems you'll never see the other side of the room. They are sure proud of it.

THE CAMP FIRE Girls had a sizzling good time Monday!! They started the first of their 8-week cooking lessons, with the girls doing their own teaching in "team teaching." They are preparing to be able to go into under-privileged areas to teach nutrition and balanced meal preparation with commodity foods. The two instructors this week were Leslie Bybee and Shelley Whitehead and they did a real great job. In fact I ate some of the dishes they prepared and it was delicious. They closed with a "Happy Birthday" to Lenise and cake for all.

WANT TO TAKE just a little line to say thanks to all those hard working basketball coaches for a job well done this season with the girls. The weather was definitely no help in game scheduling and trying to get here and there with the team, but all worked out with good humor and fun for all. An especial thanks to Mr. O'Neal Call who coached my youngest and Marylon Baker for her work with my older one. Thanks, I know and appreciate your time and effort in this.

WELL, IT IS often said nothing keeps a good man down. Didn't really know the meaning of this til Sunday evening and I. J. Tow came motoring up to our back door in zero to nothing weather to say "Hi". And then of all things to find out Mike had decided to run up town to visit a friend on his motor. What was so unfair about the whole thing is they really don't appear to be cold, and I know they just have to be cause when the door was opened I almost froze. I had meant to say this last week and plum forgot. If you would like to see a truly happy person over his Christmas present, check with Mr. Crews. He got a big ole electric train set complete with a striped hat. But don't tell your little boys cause they might just spend more time there than at home. Merry belated Christmas to you Mr. Crews. And by the way I want my turn at the switches!!

THE EVANS HAD a car full of teenagers the other cold evening. They loaded up a bunch from the neighborhood and went to the Baptist Youth Rally and reported a fine time by all was had . . .

SORRY THIS IS short but you didn't call . . . did you or you, or you.
Call me. 622-1471.

News Brief

David Schuette, son of the William F. Schuettes, has been home on leave from Fort Ord, Calif., where he has finished basic training. He leaves Jan. 6 to report for further training at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind.

David's specialty is going to be working at a television station, and also as a theater consultant and actor on base, after training at broadcast school.

Heritage Group To Meet In Feb.

The annual meeting of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation, sponsoring organization of the musical-drama "TEXAS" will be at 11:30 a.m. Feb. 14 at the Yum Yum Tree Restaurant here.

New directors will be elected for the foundation and the 1972 financial statement will be reviewed during the meeting.

Members of the Canyon High School Choir who have been selected as candidates for the All-State Choir, with director Tom Jennings, are top row, Lauren Fulton, Edna Glovier, and bottom row, Richard Smyrl and Kelly Forehand. Gary Cox, also a candidate, was not pictured. The group, accompanied by Jennings, will be in Odessa this weekend for tryouts.

News Brief

Mr. Boe Hollis has been dismissed from Neblett Memorial Hospital. He is home recovering from a broken leg suffered in an accident when his horse fell on him while at work near Hereford.

Choir Members In All-State Trys

Five candidates from Canyon High School will be in Odessa this coming week to take part in tryouts for the All-State Choir.

The five, selected recently in region tryouts, are Lauren Fulton, Edna Glovier, Gary Cox, Kelly Forehand and Richard Smyrl.

The group, accompanied by choir director Tom Jennings, will depart Canyon Friday afternoon. The tryouts will be held Saturday.

Students making the elite state-wide group will take part in the Texas Music Educator's Association convention to be held in San Antonio Feb. 7 through the 10th.

CYO To Show Disney Film

By REBA RAEF

GREETINGS FROM UMBARGER. Looks like we are going to have a lot of winter weather this year. With the snow and icy streets keeping everyone at home, our news is about as scarce as hens' teeth, and that's pretty scarce.

THE JANUARY MEETING of St. Mary's Altar Society and Christian Mothers scheduled for Jan. 2 was cancelled, because of the inclement weather.

MRS. EMMA BRANDT had a pleasant surprise last week. Her sister and brother, Mrs. Olive Welter and Mike Ziner, from Nebraska came. They plan to visit for a few days. Mike will go on to South Texas, to spend some time in the warmer climate. Mrs. Welter will return to her home in Nebraska City, Neb.

MR. AND MRS. R. C. Sandefer and family, who have lived on the Stinnett ranch, South of Umbarger, for several years, have moved. They will work for Henry Levens, of Panhandle. Sandy and Mary and family will be missed. We wish them much happiness in their new endeavor.

GUEST OF THE Richard E. Friemel family over the Christmas holidays was Mrs. Friemel's nephew, E-4 Charles Arndt. He is stationed at Ft. Hood, Texas. His home is in Cullman, Ala. His mother is the former Florence Grabber.

ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC Youth will sponsor the Walt Disney film "Pollyanna," Sunday evening, Jan. 14. The film will be shown in St. Mary's parish hall. Refreshments will be served. Everyone is invited to attend. Starting time is 7 p.m.

PISTOL AND PETTICOATS Square Dance club held their regular dance, Sunday, Jan. 7. Shirley Payne, reporter, said that a good crowd attended, in spite of the cold weather. The club is making plans for their anniversary dance, Feb. 4. From all that we hear, this should be a very enjoyable evening.

THERE IS MUCH ado in most of the barns and barnyards around here these days. The youngsters are preparing their show animals for the Junior Livestock Show and Sale. The show and sale are both scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 13. Good luck to all the boys and girls, who have worked so hard, to ready the animals for this big day. We hope the weather will be nice.

NOW, TO ALL you Umbarger people, let us know about your visitors, or trips. With your help, we can have a much nicer column of news. Thanks. Reba

Bridal Shower Honors Janice Shipman-Wedding Set Saturday Evening

By MARY NEAL HENRY

GREETINGS FROM THE North Pole. We haven't moved there, it has moved here. Calf rope! I'm ready for some sunshine.

KAY SHEETS SERVED coffee and strudel to classmates on Thursday morning. Braving the icy roads to enjoy the morning of chat were Debra Jackson, Anita Schoenenberger, and Vicki Whitlos. Kay returned to Panhandle State College at Goodwell, Okla., this week.

CINDY TOLES AND Joan Harman left last Thursday on an early flight for New York City. They planned six glorious days of sight seeing, plays, Broadway shows, museums and art showings.

They've included the Shakespearian play, "Much Ado About Nothing," and the Metropolitan theatre in their schedule. They toured Central Park and Greenwich Village. They had every minute planned. At the Shakespearian play, a picture was taken of the audience and Cindy and Joan may have come out in the New York Times on Sunday.

OMA HAYES HAD all four of her children "home" for dinner on Thursday night . . . a first in a long time. Enjoying food, dominoes and laughter at 1510 Ong were Cecil, Mike and Jack Hayes, Suzan Miller, of Canyon; Red and Frances Matthews and Dean Matthews of Panhandle; Debbie Matthews of Amarillo; Gwen and Jim Dyer and their Janie (23), Jimmie (21), Jennifer (16), Jeffery (10), and Jacklyn (6) of Wichita, Kansas; and Tom and I and our Sheri, Ken, J. T. and Angelique. It was more like Christmas than Christmas. Aunt Helen was working or on call, but the preceding Saturday night, we were all at Helen and Cecil's in Canyon. The Dyer family returned to Kansas Sunday.

HAPPY COWBOYS BEAT Nazareth Swifts Friday night. Cowgirls had less going for them . . . Canyon News has been doing an excellent job of reporting Happy Sports. (And I'm not referring to this column, in case you've been missing the write-ups.)

PATRICIA NAN GEAUTHREAUX was honored with a going-away party on Friday night at Linda Briscoe's home. It was supposed to be a surprise — so the girls told the boys, but the girls told it, so Patricia knew about the party. Enjoying the fun and food were Patricia Geauthreaux, Bonnie Briscoe, Becky Stubblefield, Kim McCaslin, Gaye Venhaus, Lisa Payne, Danny Bell, J. T. Henry, Eddie Joe Pearson, Dennis Bell, and Robert Cole.

NAN EARL AND Robert Geauthreaux will be moving to Altus, Okla., on Monday. They will be moved over the weekend and will spend this weekend with Inez and Hollis Shipman.

MANDI AND RAPHE Shipman and their parents, Judy and Gene, spent Saturday night in Hereford with Lillie and Jerry Shipman.

SUZETTE AND C. R. Wesley spent a recent weekend with Suzette's parents the Sisks, in Amsted, N. M.

THE DYERS RETURNED to Kansas on Sunday and had a safe trip home in spite of the weather.

HAPPY EASTERN STAR Friendship Night is Tuesday, Jan. 16, 1973. It begins with a salad supper at 6 p.m. You all come.

WALTER MILLER FLEW in from Chanute, Ill., on Saturday and Suzan returned with him on Saturday night. Walter will be stationed there for approximately three months.

BARBARA SHIPMAN RETURNED to Ft. Hood with Thomas Shipman recently. Ruby expects that will help her phone bill.

SOME OF THE 1972 reminiscing was the passing of Miss Bennie Purnell and the retirement of Mrs. Vivian Wesley, two great teachers. Surely the greatest tribute to a person is to be esteemed among people, especially children. Miss Purnell taught math in the Happy School system for a number of years. She was our class sponsor as seniors. We loved her. She could take a joke and smile and laugh and she was willing to help any child who came to her and asked. She had a quiet dignified manner, though she did not stand above any of her pupils. We all looked up to her. She was scarcely five feet tall, but she was tall in her spirit and in her thinking. She loved children and we loved her back.

MRS. VIVIAN WESLEY taught in the Happy school systems long enough to teach three generations of some families. Many of those years she served in the capacity of Grade School Superintendent and kept a most efficient office. A grade school teacher is a most responsible task for the pupils are still in their formative years. These people must surely have a special desire to serve in this capacity. My hat is off to them. And we have some outstanding ones!

HAPPY HAS INCLUDED in their roll of teachers many of the greatest and most loved of teachers anywhere. The greatest tribute of life must be to be loved by the people, with whom one works, and a warm spot in the pupils' memory is the reward of a good teacher. One still living is Mrs. R. T. Moudy, Sr. A college appreciated her English pupils. And those pupils remember her most in love. Yes, we've had many such teachers and today we need more of this calibre.

BURNETTE JOHNSON WAS recently honored on her birthday with gifts, a birthday cake (which even said "Happy Birthday") and a salad supper, in the home of Louise Stubblefield. Helping celebrate were Roberta Cox, Alice Penn, Ruby Lawson, Lena Bell Cabe, Hazel Stubblefield, Joyce Wheat and granddaughter Tricia Hargrave, Charlotte Weaver and daughter, Ramona, Merle Faye and Stone Cope, Josephine Garcia, Lena Ponder, Leta Todd, the honoree, and hostess. Belated Happy Birthday, Burnette!

JANICE SHIPMAN WAS honored with a bridal shower on Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 at Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church. Roads were snowy and icy, but many came by to view the beautiful gifts. Janice, and her mother, Evelyn Shipman greeted guests. Jill White, Carol Bramlett, Elizabeth Dizzell and Kathy Holland served spiced tea, coffee, snowball cakes and mints from a white table centered with purple flowers and silver appointments. Hostesses were: Mildred Devin, Jane Thornton, Wanda Bates, Anna Mae McManigal, Mary Mayes, Nan Earlye Geauthreaux, Monteen Stevens, Geneva Sutton, Mary Johnson, Catherine Miller, Willie Butler, Lucy Moudy, Jo Ellen Harvey, Delores Allen, Pat Hargrave, Pat Sims, Modenia Rahlfs, Nig Taylor, Evelyn Dowd, Hope Wilson, Jill White, Louise Szydloski, Gladys Haley, Mary Neal Henry, Ora Mary Sims, Tootsie Denny, Pauline Wesley, Irene Hardaway, Karlene Moore, Jerry Holland, Ruth Sims, Betty Rahlfs, Mrs. Dora Ratjen, Margaret Middleton, Willa Elliott, Kate McManigal, Joan McDonald. Out of town guests included Anna Belle and Carol Bramlett of Lockney.

JANICE AND JESS opened their gifts on Saturday morning at 9:30. Nice to share the happy event. Janice also had three other showers. She was given a bridal shower in Mancos, Colo., where future in-laws live; her roommate at school in Goodwell, Okla., gave her a kitchen gadget shower; and Jill White hostessed a lingerie shower for Janice. Kathy Holland, Barbara Shipman, Cindy Toles, Marilyn Coile, Carol Bramlett, Pam Shipman, Louise Szydloski, Susan Vernon, and Ann Moudy attended the lingerie shower at Jill's and helped make the wheat bags for the wedding. That is the best idea I've heard. We don't raise rice here, we raise wheat, so Janice has just discovered another market for wheat. (And let's don't import it.)

AND YOU ARE all invited to the wedding:

MR. AND MRS. Rayford Shipman request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Janice Raye to Mr. Jesse Harley Walton on Saturday, January 13, 1973, at 7:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Happy, Texas. A reception will follow in Fellowship Hall. Janice and Jesse plan to make Goodwell their home at least until spring.

BROTHER PAUL HAD a Glorieta notice in the recent church letter. He is urging all those youth between 12 and 17 or through high school to attend one of the sessions at Glorieta this summer. Dates are June 3-9 or June 24-30 and cost is only $40.50 for the week. If you think you'd like to go, call Brother Paul and talk to him.

MONTENE AND CLIFFORD and Terry Stevens were guests at church Sunday. Barry Stevens has been leading our song services for the past few weeks and the Stevens planned to go on to Dimmitt for a funeral. The Stevens are members of the Wayside Church.

ROYSE AND BILL Vernon and Kate Vernon have been to Houston to attend Steve's wedding.

MIKE MCCARLEY, 24, passed away at his Canyon home last Saturday. Mike was a native of Happy and salutatorian of the 1967 graduating class. Mike graduated from West Texas in 1971 and had taken a job as a security officer there. I'm told first hand that Mike was well liked by the students. Mike was a member of the Church of Christ in Happy and his funeral was there on Tuesday, Jan. 9 at 2 p.m. Burial was also in Happy. His mother, Johnnie McCarley is employed in the tax office at school and school dismissed in Happy at 1:45 on Tuesday. Survivors include his parents, Johnnie and Buck McCarley, one brother, Neil, and a sister, Becky, a grandfather, H. C. McCarley, and a host of relatives and friends.

MIKE WAS A mascot to our graduating class, in 1953. Happy doesn't even have mascots anymore, but we did and were always rather partial to those as they grew up. It surely leaves an emptiness.

Talent Show Try-Outs Begin

Auditions for "Carousel of Stars" Talent Show will begin this Saturday, Jan. 13, with a session scheduled 9 to 11 a.m. in the All Purpose Room at Rex Reeves Elementary School, according to an announcement made by the Heritage Woman's Club, sponsors. Later auditions will take place at the same time and place on Jan. 20 and 27.

The annual talent show will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 3, in the Canyon Junior High School auditorium. Admission has been set at $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Entrants will be judged in three divisions: primary, grades 1-4; junior, grades 5-8; and senior, grades 9-12. In all three divisions, prizes will be awarded of a $50 bond for first place, $10 bond for second place, and $5 bond for third place.

The $50 bonds have been donated by First National Bank, West Texas State Bank, and, jointly, Shell's Pharmacy and Jess Ford Co. The second prizes of $10 bonds have been donated by Ideal Food Stores, Southwest Public Service Co., and Draughon's Business College. Third prizes of $5 bonds have been contributed by White's Auto Store, Western Auto Store, and Williams, Etc. A door prize will be given away, courtesy of Thompson's of Canyon.

Auditions will be before a panel from the Heritage Woman's Club. Entrants must audition with the act to be presented at the talent show and bring their own accompanist. Entry fees will be $2 for solo, $3 for duet, and $4 for ensembles in the grades 3-5 division and $5 for ensembles in the grades 6-10 division.

All proceeds from the "Carousel of Stars" Talent Show will benefit the Neblett Clinic nursery. Last year's talent show earnings enabled the Heritage Woman's Club to present two new cribs to the nursery.

Further information about the talent show may be obtained by calling Claudine Lehman, 655-3903.

WILLIE BUTLER HELPED with a "Let's Be Thankful Tea" in Plainview on Sunday in the City National Bank for Mrs. Frances Austin. Frances was being honored for five years of faithful service as Grand Examiner of District II, Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star. Willie said that most of the guests of the day were local or from the south. Willie was the only one from Happy brave enough to go, but she said the driving really wasn't bad.

CANYON SUNDAY NEWS again had a feature article on one of Happy's talented citizens. Jim Sands interviewed Bob Hargrave and the title "Artist Now Uses Smaller Brush" was typical of Jim's wit. Bob's cards that were printed this season were beautiful and I received one from Ft. Worth. Mrs. Vivian Wesley sent Angelique and I a New Year's note, most appreciated. Mrs. Wesley says that she and the aunts are fine. The weather there has been drippy, but she thinks maybe that it has been better than ours.

GRACYNE (DEVIN) PARKER called her Mom on Monday and couldn't believe that our temperature hadn't been over 20 degrees all day. They were 32 degrees in Nevada. All the Parkers were reported doing well.

CATHY PARKER CALLED the 4-H meeting to order on Monday night. Kyle Odom led the pledge to the American flag and Russell Bowman the 4-H pledge. Marta Kay Donnell gave the inspiration.

BRENDA PARKER CALLED the roll and Cathy welcomed guests. Pat Sims talked about food groups. Concession at the Junior Livestock Show was discussed and program and food lists made up. Nancy Woods and LaRae Sims were responsible for the program, which was given by the Happy Fire Department. First the group toured the Happy Fire Department and then Lee Donnell introduced Kirk Williams, a state certified Emergency Medical Technician, who presented the program. Kirk presented a most informative program to the 4-H Club by answering their questions and demonstrating. Many of the Happy Volunteer Firemen were on hand to help with the tour. Among them, Bill Andrews, Buddy Selvidge, Cecil Shaw, Richard Kennedy, and Lee and Kirk. The Foster Parkers served refreshments to about forty people.

See ya!

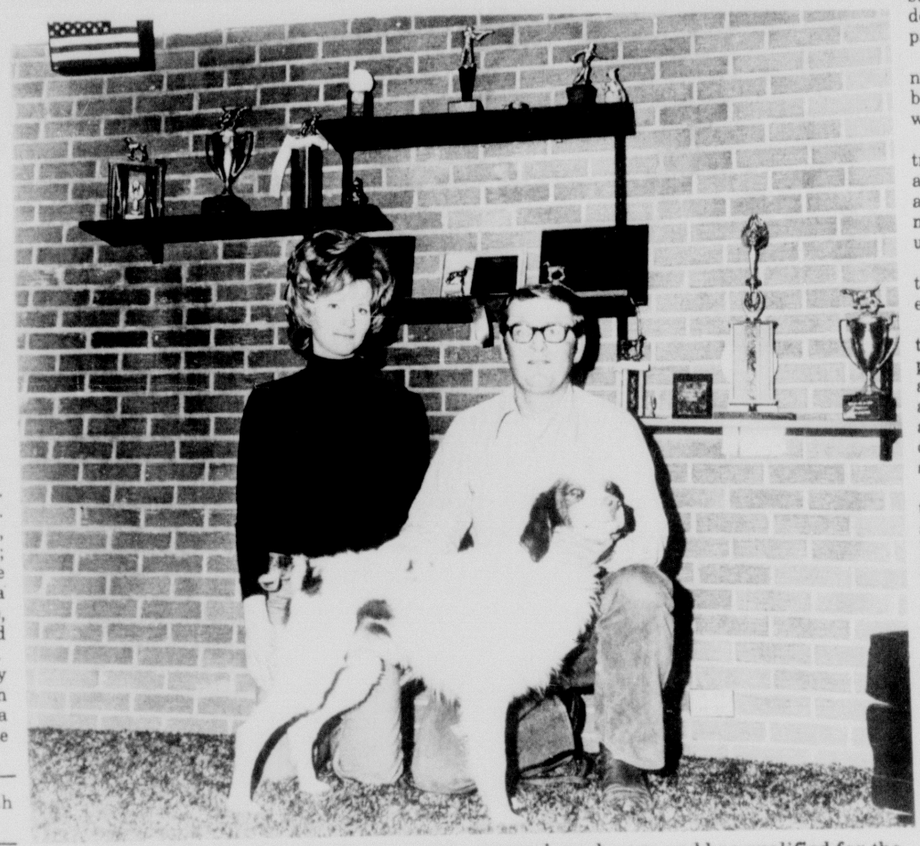
This Canyon Champ Not Barking Up Wrong Tree

There seems to be a run on champions in and around Canyon at the present time. The girl Eagle basketballers are still at the top as a result of their play last year; the football buffs share one-third of the Missouri Valley Conference crown; the Happy Cowboy eleven holds district honors; and Eagle Bob Counseller has just been named to the All-State gridiron team.

And Canyon also offers a Brittany spaniel that has begun his climb up the field trial honors ladder by winning numerous local and area meets and by qualifying for both the National Open and U.S. Open field trials.

He is Shardee's Radar Rusty, owned and handled by Dee Nix of 2504 8th Ave., Canyon.

Rusty, as the sleek hunter-competitor is called, did not win the National Open held several months ago in Ardmore, Okla., and he may not take top honors at the upcoming U.S. Open event set for Decatur, Tex., in February or March. But just being eligible to compete in the tournaments of dog champions is a pretty big step, considering that the finest dogs in the nation are taking part.



Mr. and Mrs. Dee Nix of 2504 8th Ave., with their Brittany spaniel, Shardee's Radar Rusty. Rusty has won several local and area field trial meets, took part in the National Open several weeks ago and has qualified for the U.S. Open to be held at Decatur later this year.

According to Nix, Rusty did nothing in the National Open to be ashamed of. "He just didn't win."

To qualify for the Ardmore trials, Rusty won the "open all ages" stakes at Artesia, N.M., and he used wins in several meets as stepping stones to the upcoming Decatur event.

In both meets, the top dogs of the country compete against each other, Nix said.

The divisions of competition in the various meets are open puppy, open derby, amateur gun dog, amateur all ages, open gun dog and open all ages. Rusty has won all such events at least once and others on several occasions, Nix said.

Nix, his wife, Sharon, and their three children, Tod 11, Tom 9, and Terry 6, live next door to the University Apartments, 2500 8th Ave., which they manage.

Nix is employed as a special agent with Transamerica Insurance Co., also.

The family is active in sports, including Kids Inc., and claim ownership of three grown Brittany spaniels and four pups. Also found at the home is a Basenji, an African hound with short hair which does not bark . . . but can almost talk.

According to Nix, they got involved with Brittany spaniels about four years ago quite by accident. "Rusty started it all," said Mrs. Nix. "Dee got him for a hunting dog and we didn't know that he was going to be as good as he is."

Nix said that when it became apparent that Rusty was more than he could handle, he was turned over to a professional trainer. He was with the trainer for about a year and a half beginning at the age of 18 months, Nix said.

The trophy winning dog, Rusty, is also used by Nix for hunting, along with Puff and Duke.

Puff is the brood female with the kennel name, Bazooka's Holliday Puff. She has been bred to the third place winner of the National Open and the fourth place winner of the Amateur Open held in Kentucky.

She is again due to provide a litter at the end of January.

Duke, a male, is used mostly for bird hunting, Nix said. "But he did take first place in a local trial held at Buffalo Lake last April," he added.

After winning a place in an open puppy category, Puff was retired to brood stock and has not entered competition since.

Nix, a graduate of West Texas State University, spent two years in the Army and lived in Lubbock before making Canyon his home. Mrs. Nix is a native of Amarillo.

Both are looking to the day when they will operate a modern boarding facility for dogs in or near Canyon. "I want it to have a professional trainer," Nix said. He added that such a boarding facility with expert training would be especially good for people who wanted a hunting dog but who could not keep, care for and train them themselves.

Nix, who has hunted all his life, described the Brittany as an excellent hunting dog and an ideal pet. "it's a great family dog," added Mrs. Nix.

According to Nix, other hunting dogs may be better at specific jobs delegated to them, but he said he believed the Brittany was a much better all around hunter. His choice of breeds is also more affectionate and easier to train, he said. "They have a good temperament . . . are not hardheaded and are self-learners."

Nix said that he had found that championship dogs are born with the needed qualities and that proper training is necessary in order to bring out those qualities. The ability of the handler at field events plays a great part in winning a meet, he added.

The dog owner said that all such animals need a certain amount of finishing, this by a professional trainer.

Hunting, according to Nix, is the big thing regarding the Brittany, because "field trials only can go so far." He cited the limited number of events and the distances involved in getting to them.

Mrs. Nix told of spending ten days camping in Arizona while taking part in field trials. "Everyone doesn't have to get as involved as we do," she said, crediting their interest in dogs with providing additional family recreation.

Nix said several persons in Canyon and the area own Brittany spaniels, and at least two take part in competition. He mentioned Bud Higginbotham and Dr. R. C. Busteed.

And, if the Dee Nix family has anything to do with it, there will probably be increased interest in the sporting breed. After all, how many dogs do you know that can win trophies, tend to the kids and also find and bring back the evening meal?

Pool Rejoins Tennis Team

Scott Pool is rejoining the West Texas State tennis team at the start of the spring semester after laying out one year to concentrate on his studies.

The senior from San Antonio compiled a 23-20 record in 1970 and 1971. He played in the Buffaloes number 4 singles position.

The student leader of the ROTC program at WTSU, Pool plans a career as an Army officer. He is married to the former Lisa Airhart of Tulia.

"Scott gives us the team depth that we need," said Coach David Kent. "He will be a much better player than in past years and will help us with his excellent leadership abilities."

Pool compiled a 2.5 grade average on a 3 point system this past semester while majoring in biology.

Other Buffalo tennis players and their grade averages for the first semester are Mike Bolton and Bill Marsh, both 2.8; Joe Carrick, 2.7; Dale Corbin, 2.6; and John Phillips, 1.8.

Girl Eagles Ignore Snow, Freeze Panhandle 68-37

The girl Eagles of Canyon High School Tuesday night thumbed their noses at the bad weather, traveled to Panhandle and then downed the varsity team there by a score of 68-37.

A boys team game scheduled for Floydada was cancelled because of icy road conditions.

Kim Killingsworth tossed in 20 points to pace Eagle scoring but Sheryl Gunter was close on her heels with 19. Alisha Nelson finished the game with 14 while Sheryl Adams had 6, Mendy Sternenberg got 5 and Carla Swatzell and Diane Harp picked up two each.

Susan Hull led the way with a rating of plus-15 in coach Bob Schneider's formula for rating guards in which a plus-7 or plus-8 is considered extremely good. Lynn Davis scored a plus-11 and Judy McBroom and Carla Ratliff each netted a plus-5.

Rebounding for guards was led by Susan Hull who had five grabs off the boards.

According to coach Schneider, the girls experienced a total of 17 turnovers, a weakness that is constantly being worked on in practice. The coach has said that he is shooting for a maximum of 10 to 12 turnovers per game. The 17 posted Tuesday night was an improvement over recent games, Schneider said.

Schneider also cited an improvement in rebounding by his players but he said they still needed to improve. This was vital with the team's first district game coming up Jan. 19.

The girls hit 29 of 58 field shots for a percentage of 50, and from the foul line were 10 of 16 for 64 per cent, the coach said.

In other action Tuesday night, the girl JVs downed Panhandle by a score of 59 to 24, and the sophomore girls beat Alamo High of Amarillo 32-23.

The game scheduled with Phillips for Friday night has been cancelled and to date a replacement game has not been found.

Their next scheduled game will be at home next Tuesday night against Slaton, a team beaten by the girl Eagles three times this year. Point margins in those games were 2, 6 and 8.

The boy Eagles will travel to Pampa Friday night for games there.

Connie Davis, sophomore at Canyon High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Dean Davis, was crowned Queen of the Randall County Sheriff's Posse for 1973 at a banquet and installation service last Saturday evening in the Canyon Community Center.

Randall Co. Sheriff's Posse Installs Officers

Headed by Wayne Wallis as president, a new slate of officers for the Randall County Sheriff's Posse was installed following a banquet held Saturday evening, Jan. 6, at the Canyon Community Center. Raymond Raillard, president of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce performed the installation services.

Other new officers assuming duty were Jim Scott, vice president, Blaine Hufnagle, secretary, Ewing Clayton, treasurer, Jim Plain, parade marshall, and Archie Davis, assistant parade marshall. Tommy Platt was installed as director of junior deputies, and Emil Olson and Leroy Gross were installed as members of the board.

A new Randall County Sheriff's Posse Queen, Connie Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Dean Davis and Canyon High School student, was named during the evening's activities. She was crowned by a past queen, Kathy Hufnagle.

Sheriff Cliff Longest, honorary chairman of the organization, gave the oath deputizing 26 members of the Sheriff's posse. They include R. B. Allen, Richard A. Bryant, Leroy Gross, James L. Boyce, Sr., George Caldwell, Glenn Campbell, Ewing Clayton, Archie Dean Davis, Ervin J. Davis, Stewart Hamblen, John Hardaway, B. L. Hufnagle, W. C. Longest, J. V. Moore, Alvin Oglesby, Emil Olson, Jimmy Plain, Tom Platt, Tommy Joe Platt, Earl Reynolds, Delbert Runyon, A. P. Sanford, Jr., Jimmy Scott, Wayne Wallis, Jim Ward, and R. D. Wheelock.

On hand for the banquet and ceremonies were family and guests of members of the Sheriff's Posse. Mr. and Mrs. Wes Ninemire, KCAN director and his wife, attended as special guests. Kendra Wallis entertained with several piano selections during the evening.

The Randall County Sheriff's Posse lends aid to the sheriff when called upon, promotes interest in horsemanship, and annually sponsors the pony express race in Canyon. Their families are associate members and participate in many of the activities.

Man Charged With Marijuana

An Amarillo man was charged this week with possession of marijuana after he was arrested by Amarillo police while parked in front of a drug store in South Amarillo.

Stanley Cobb was arraigned Tuesday before Justice of the Peace W. A. "Bill" Wilson, who set bond at $1500.

A woman was also arrested allegedly trying to obtain amphetamines from the drug store. She is charged with a misdemeanor.

Parties And Lists Of Resolutions Usher In The New Year

By MILDRED TURNER

JERRI AND JOHN Thompson entertained friends and relatives with a New Year's party. This is an annual affair with games as well as goodies of old traditional family recipes. Among their guests were Eddie and Kay Scroggins, twins Mark and Mike from Seagraves, Michael Thompson, who is in the service at Ft. Huachuca, near Tucson, Ariz., John and Garlene Thompson, daughters Lynette and Tammy from Omaha, Nebraska, and Angie McDaniels from Seagraves. Angie is Rodney's girlfriend whom he visited recently.

LUM AND LENA Edwards started the new year with a big bang. Their guests were Laverne and Tommy McGaha, Edgar and Maxine Pearson, Odell and Victor Steen. They played "42" until about 1:30 pausing to ring out the old year and blow in the new year at 12:o'clock. They rang a hand bell, blew a steam whistle, turned on the siren and shot the shot gun. The shots were so plain I thought some idiots had shot our house! I dashed out and looked all around. Lum never blows his siren for fun except on New Years. He does use it for emergencies. Once when Loraine Inman was a new comer, she called and asked the Edwards about the siren. They explained they were only celebrating the new year. Around 1:30 a.m. Lena served ham, blackeyed peas, hot rolls, pie and all the trimmings. I would say they had a blast and their luck started unusually early for the year of 1973.

SEVERAL OF US got a can of blackeyed peas in our mail boxes. Thanks to the First National Bank of Canyon. I feel in my bones this is a lucky year.

GUESTS AT THE Turner's New Year's party were: Margie and Ernest Carlile, Jane and Cleo Sides, Cleve and Elizabeth Rainwater, Geneva McDaniels, Margaret Blackburn, E. L. Hooker, Juanita and Hubert Abbott. Louise was sick so she and Kenneth Houtchens did not make it. Jane and Cleo Sides are a little slow these days as they have just had a new grandson. We had a showing of Elizabeth's paintings, which are just beautiful, read one of her poems and laughed at some of her cartoons. E. L. is a brother to Charles who lives out here. Margie was telling me about what a time they had going up the hill (off the main road) to their house during our last snow. When she got out to push she was almost slung into a post, then as she pushed behind the car she fell flat on her face. She said it hurt but she couldn't cry for laughing. When I asked if she thought Ernest was trying to get rid of her, she replied, "It would not be that easy!"

SOME OF YOU may have seen the write-up in the Amarillo paper about Danny, the Abbott's son, who is showing in "The Getaway," currently at the State.

CLEVE RAINWATER, WHO is a versatile type character, disappeared during the party. We found him donning coveralls fixing this ball-type thing-a-ma-jig in the tank part of the commode. It would not rise as it should, so he had fixed it in about five minutes, slipped out of his coveralls and back into his dignified self. The Rainwaters have the Ponderosa Apartments down at Canyon and he has almost had to become a plumber to meet emergencies when a plumber was not available. He's always teasing me about being a "plumber's friend."

WE GATHERED AROUND the piano (Geneva played) and sang Christmas carols, hymns and patriotic songs. We had planned on playing various games with dominoes but got carried away in our singing. We served orange pineapple punch, coke or coffee with all sorts of dainty sandwiches, chips and dips. Margaret and Geneva made some delicious cookies. Everyone left around twelve or shortly after.

SAW MYRTLE FORSTER the other day and she was wearing a pretty coat she has crocheted recently. She visited an aunt in Stratford during the holiday season. The cake you brought to us was delicious.

GRANDSONS TIM CARLILE and Guy Foster spent the night Friday with the Carliles. Ernest's sister, the Kermit Irvins, attended church and spent the night Sunday with them. The four of them went to Amarillo, visited and played "42" with Lucy Kirk, another sister, on New Year's day.

DORA WALDROP WENT to her son's, Don Waldrop, near Fort Worth for Christmas. Guests in her home during the holidays were her sister, Hazel Mannion, and her nephew, Gilson Mannion, who is in the Air Force.

BELATED HAPPY BIRTHDAY to Robbie Forster whose birthday was Jan. 7. Robbie has just returned from a trip to Europe. I don't have any of the details of the trip yet because of the weather.

CAROLYN BAILEY AND her friend Orville Ladehoff had the same birthday, Jan. 7. They went out to eat at Sutphens. They let Grace Ladehoff and Dan Bailey go along. Other guests were Martha and Gordon Schroeder. After eating they had cake and ice cream and played pitch at the Ladehoff's.

A BELATED HAPPY 13th birthday to Greg Moore on Dec. 21. Greg said, "Mother, I don't want to be a teenager — I've heard so much about them." She explained that there are many wonderful teenagers throughout the land, but you hear about the good ones and the bad ones. She also told him, "You have been acting like a teenager for a couple of years, Greg." Greg mows the yard in the summer, is active in sports, plays the guitar, and I heard he cooked some very good chicken-fried steak while his mother was unpacking. The Moores had been to McLean to visit Jarriel's family. I do think Greg will make a teenager to be proud of.

JOE LOVAN WENT back to work today after recovery from a recent heart attack. Take it a little easy, Joe, and hope you will continue to recover.

ESTELLE ATKERSON AND Nell Moore are on the puny list this week. So give them a call and by the time they answer the phone a few dozen times, they will be much better.

ELIZABETH MCGAHEY HAD major surgery Monday and is doing fine. Will keep you posted.

GUESTS AT THE Charles Hooker's were June's brother, Billy, his wife Nelda and children, Steve and Rynea Stewart from Midland. June said she has made some New Year's resolutions but will not commit herself until she sees if they are going to take or not.

JOYCE MCDONALD WAS on the sick list this week, but is better today. Joyce believes in New Year's resolutions. Even if you cannot keep them all, it is better than not to try at all.

WELL, SOME FOLKS flatly state they don't believe in New Year's resolutions which they never keep beyond two weeks. I believe New Years is as good a time as any to sit down and make a list on how to improve one's self, home, set some goals for the future. Even if I don't get the whole list accomplished, some achievement is better than none. Last year we got the outside trim done but the outside furniture is on the list again. Next, I need to frame some pictures, bring photobook, scrapbook and Family History book up to date. I want to finish all projects before beginning another. I started a "best seller" years ago but due to a broken down typewriter, I never got beyond the character descriptions, which I just loved doing. (I love to study people in real life). I still lack the "plot, climax, etc. I could do like some of the modern books and shows — forget the plot. Anyway, this may be the year, if I get my typewriter fixed! I need to read the box of books I got at a "Garage Sale" to see if they are the type I want on my shelves for my family. On with the list: Garage has been on the list for years and is on again this year. Some one asked what was that pile out there? My answer was "That's my garage!" "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." I wonder if Lena and Estelle got their trunks done? "Antique trunk" has been on the list at least two years, but I've got this feeling it will be real soon now.

IT MAY SEEM I have forgot myself but I have not. I need to find a matronly glamorous way to fix my hair (it resembles a dust mop needing a good shaking).

RIGHT AFTER CHRISTMAS is a good time to weigh all these matters, deciding which ones are most important for the list. Speaking of weighing, I slipped in on my scales (which make an odd noise) about 6:30 this morning while there was still plenty of privacy. During daylight hours you cannot get on these scales without from one to three people peeking over your shoulder. My scales confirmed my great inner fears which have been nagging me lately and especially since last night. It all started when grandson number one wanted to go to the bathroom. Upon arrival he seemed to forget his mission so I was going to pretend to sit on his training chair (to convince him that is what everyone is doing nowadays). I don't know why I crossed my feet but oops. . I slipped and my fat got hung and stuck in the sides. Grandson has an odd sense of humor and laughed as I tried to stand up and free myself. It really hurt! As we headed back toward the TV he pointed to his metal high chair to get me to try it also. I caught on real quick, and in no uncertain tones said "No!" I could just see me on my all fours (like a cow) in Gene's pickup, being hauled in to find a cutting torch. So that's one reason I arose early to get on those scales. I hate them! I'd like to sneak them out to the barrel but I'd be suspect number one so I'll just try to do something about me. This list could go on and on so I'll just say in arranging and cleaning my mind and desk that I pray I'll be a better neighbor, friend, mother, wife and Christian in the year of '73.

Mildred Turner

'TEXAS' Auditions Set

When the company of "TEXAS" bursts onto the stage in the opening performance of the eighth season on June 21, where will the actors, the singers and dancers have come from?

They will be chosen in open auditions which start Jan. 20 and continue through March.

Each person wishing to become a cast member will perform for the show's four directors: William A. Moore, who is in charge, Margaret Echols Moore, associate director, Royal Brantley, musical director, and Neil Hess, choreographer.

Each applicant will sing something which reveals the range and power of his voice, will give a reading of two minutes or less from memory showing his ability to portray different emotions, and will have the opportunity to show how smoothly and rhythmically he can move in time to music.

Although the first audition for the season will be in Canyon, the directors will travel throughout the area to give potential actors, singers and dancers in other areas an opportunity to audition.

In their effort to secure the best possible talent for "TEXAS," the directors have sent audition information to 750 schools, 500 newspapers and have distributed 1500 posters.

Auditions for the show will be held in Canyon from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Jan. 20 in the Fine Arts Building on the West Texas State University campus.

The next day, the directors will travel to Lubbock where they will audition in the women's gym at Texas Tech.

Then, they travel to Abilene, Waco, Dallas and Oklahoma City.

The 1973 version of Paul Green's drama will play from June 21 through August 25, nightly except Sundays.

Officers Named By Women Chamber

Betty Markham was named president of the women's division of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night and Marion Thompson was named first vice president.

Lois Rice was elected second vice president, Christine McGlasson was named secretary, Bitsy Downing was named treasurer, and Edith Davis, parliamentarian.

The new officers will make up the new board of directors of the division along with directors Shirley Donnell and Carol Crain.

In other business Tuesday night, the members of the division discussed committee appointments and talked about recruiting efforts by West Texas State University.

New board members of the women's division of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce are l to r, Mrs. Shirley Donnell, Mrs. Bitsy Downing, Mrs. Christine McGlasson, Mrs. Marion Thompson and Mrs. Edith Davis.

Price Predicts Bill Introduction For Highways

U.S. Rep. Bob Price has written County Judge Woody Pond that he will support a "fair and reasonable" federal highway funding act, which he expects to be introduced into Congress this year.

Randall County Commissioners had passed a resolution in December calling for enactment of a federal highway aid bill.

The county has a vested interest in a highway bill, since the possibility that two U.S. highways in the county could become interstate highways under a bill's provisions.

U.S. 87, now Interstate 27, has already been named an interstate highway and construction is planned for it to by-pass Canyon to the east.

Several cities in eastern New Mexico have also contacted cities in Texas to have U.S. 60, which passes through north Canyon, renamed an interstate highway.

"You will be pleased to know that I have been advised by the members of the House Committee on Public Works that the federal aid to highways act is being prepared for reintroduction at this time," Price's letter states. "I believe it is safe to assume from this that this bill will be submitted to the Congress early this year."

The federal highways act was not passed by Congress in its last session.

Three Elected In Water Dist.

Harry LeGrand of Amarillo, Joe Albracht of Bushland and Leonard Batenhorst of Canyon were elected Tuesday as committeemen from Randall County for the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District 1.

Billy Wayne Sisson of Hereford was named to represent the area on the district's board of directors.

All elected here were unopposed.

Probation Given In Pot Sale Case

A South Amarillo man was given 10 years adult probation by a 181st District Court jury after he pleaded guilty to a charge of selling marijuana.

Larry A. Cate pleaded guilty before Judge Don Dean and presented testimony for sentencing before a 5-woman, 7-man jury Monday.

He was charged with selling four marijuana cigarettes to an undercover agent on June 24.

He was arrested during a massive drug raid last October in Potter and Randall Counties.

Cate is also under indictment on a similar charge here. His trial in that case will be on Feb. 26 in 181st District Court here.

Services Held For Happy Man

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at the Happy Church of Christ for David Michael McCarley, 24, who died Friday in his apartment here.

Bill Looney, minister of the Happy church, and Morgan Sturgess, minister of the Central Church of Christ in Tulia, officiated.

Pallbearers were Reedy McDonald, Tommy Sexton, James L. Passons, Eddie Moudy, Mark Moudy, Dwight Currie, J. Carroll McDonald and Lee Morgan.

Burial was in Happy Cemetery by LaGrone Funeral Chapel of Canyon.

Mr. McCarley, a West Texas State University security policeman, was found dead in his apartment at 117 28th St. by sheriff's deputies and security policemen about 11:45 p.m. Saturday.

Justice of the Peace W. A. "Bill" Wilson pronounced him dead and ordered an autopsy.

Autopsy results revealed cause of death was due to natural causes.

Mr. McCarley had been a Canyon resident about a year. He was born in Amarillo and grew up in Happy. He graduated from Happy High School in 1967 and from West Texas State University in 1971.

He was a member of the Canyon Lions Club and the Happy Church of Christ.

Mike McCarley

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie B. McCarley of Happy; a brother, James Neil of Happy; a sister, Rebecca Janese of Happy; and a grandfather, H. C. McCarley of Happy.

federal computations.

Loudder said he has not yet received those figures from the state. Nor has County Judge Woody Pond.

A letter attached to the revenue sharing checks by the Treasury Department notes that the government withheld 5 per cent — 1 per cent from the first check and 4 per cent from the second — to allow for errors in figuring.

Judge Pond received a letter Monday from the office of U.S. Rep. Bob Price attached to which were explanatory figures on how the Treasury Department computed revenue-sharing funding.

Unfortunately, the letter "doesn't tell us anything we didn't already know," Pond said.

The city has received about $20,000 more during the first year funding of revenue-sharing than they expected. And, so far, they have not spent any of the federal money.

The county, though, which received about $10,000 less than anticipated, has already spent $28,276 of their federal funds.

The county's revenue-sharing money went for:

City of Amarillo transportation study — $3100

City of Amarillo bi-city health unit — $2901

Kids, Inc. — $550

Killgore Children's Psychiatric Center — $1875

City of Canyon library — $125

Salaries for sheriff and deputies and probation officers — $12,674

Potter County adult probation office — $2320

Microfilm reader for county clerk — $215

Two radar units for Department of Public Safety — $4015

Umbarger Fire Department — $500

"I'd be glad to call a meeting of all the department heads including the commissioners court," Pond told Hutton.

"It should be in executive session," Hutton responded.

"This won't come under the grievance committee," said Bill Butler, commissioner.

"I think the meeting should be set by commissioners court," Jim Fletcher, commissioner, said. "It should not be in executive session."

Commissioner Paul Lindsey said the department heads could meet on general problem areas in a public meeting. If specific personalities became involved in personnel areas an executive session could be called.

Hutton said he desires a meeting — perhaps once a month — for county department heads to discuss their problems. But, he persisted with his comments that the meeting should not be open to the press.

"I don't think by law we can do it," Lindsey said.

"Well, I think it should be in executive session," Hutton responded. "I feel like we would talk freer without the press."

Commissioner John Fulgenzi said he believed as long as the session remained administrative, there would be no need for the press to be present.

But, Fletcher said he thinks the commissioners court should also be present.

"As a court, we can't participate in an executive meeting," Lindsey said. "If you do it on your own we'd have no concern. For us to participate and exclude the press, I think would be out of line."

With that, Hutton asked the Judge to call a department head meeting.

The meeting will be at 1 p.m. Jan. 24.

In other business, commissioners appointed Frank O Nelson as the county's representative to the Potter-Randall Health Council. Deputy Recil Johnson was appointed to the Animal Control Board.

Commissioners approved the advertising for bids for county depository for the next year.

They also appointed William G. Dupree, Walter Irwin and Thomas Badrow, all of Amarillo, as members of the county salary grievance committee.

The three serve along with several elected officials to hear employee grievances concerning salaries. The committee has the power to raise salaries in certain cases.

a leader and both again used the word, "deserving."

Mills cited the big lineman as being the team's most consistent player. According to the head coach, Counseller averaged 12 tackles per game, forced six fumbles and fell on four loose balls himself.

When playing at defensive end, Mills said, Counseller's presence often caused the opposing offensive units to run plays to the other side of the field.

And, said Clardy, Counseller played most of the season with a painful growth on the bottom of his foot. It was recently removed by surgery, the coach said.

Counseller is also a stalwart on the Eagle basketball team and has been a standout in track.

In addition to being a weight man, Counseller has been clocked in the 40-yard dash at 4.8. This, said the coaches, is exceptional for a runner of his size.

Both coaches also agreed that the greatest thing about Counseller was the fact that he will be back next year. "It's great," said Clardy. "I'm tickled that he is just a junior and we'll have him again."

Counseller was not too talkative about his new-won honor but he did admit that it was "great."

This was the second straight year that an Eagle end has made the All-State squad. Mike Podzemny turned the same trick as a member of the 1971 team.

Flu Not Here

New and various strains of influenza may be making the rounds throughout the country, but Canyon hasn't been infected yet.

Neblett Hospital Administrator Ray Grimes said no unusual number of flu patients have been reported at the hospital.

area population," he said, "particularly in the north 26 counties of the state with the exception of about two or three."

He noted a general decline in job opportunities, also.

An attitude he cited as having much to do with the decline in enrollment is that a college degree is no longer necessary.

He said the college degree has suffered a loss in prestige with the increase in employment of college-age youths in technical-vocational areas.

Another factor in the loss in enrollment, he said, is the recent increase in tuition for students attending state-supported colleges.

And, another is the increase in the number of state-supported junior colleges and senior colleges in the state.

Laycock said WTSU administrators began working to counteract these possible factors two years ago when it became evident that the university enrollment, for whatever reason, was declining.

It was at that point that the university began an expansion of new programs — including a new nursing program.

Laycock said these initial efforts to stem the decline in student numbers were hampered by the lack of funds to conduct a thorough recruitment campaign.

Then, last year, state funds were allowed to be used for recruiting purposes and WTSU began planning a full program, he said.

In October, 1972, the university hired an "admissions advisor," whose job, according to Laycock, is to visit high schools in the state and help students in their preparations for college.

"He's not a recruiter," Laycock said. "We wanted someone to go out to meet with students in the public schools — not only to recruit for West Texas but with the idea that if he can be helpful to students we'll get our rightful share."

Laycock said the admissions advisor, the dean of admissions and others in the university administration have visited high schools throughout the state including six schools in Dallas, three in Odessa, eight in El Paso, five in San Antonio and three in Lubbock. In addition, high schools across the Panhandle have been visited.

"What are the results?" Laycock asked. "You never really know the results although we think they will be to establish relations with these schools where they know this young man (admissions advisor)."

Laycock said efforts are also being focused to produce brochures and pamphlets on the various aspects of the university which can be used in recruiting efforts.

He said administrators are working with officials from more than 10 junior colleges in the Panhandle-South Plains area to ensure students in those junior colleges will have little or no trouble transferring hours to WTSU to continue their education.

"It will be some time before we can tell what's paying off and even then it will be difficult," Laycock said of the various efforts.

In the near future, he said, the university plans to step up its invitations to senior classes in high schools throughout the state — asking them to visit WTSU for an afternoon or morning.

Another plan in the mill is to have a "counselling caravan" which would travel to an area town with university faculty members and administrators on board to help students in area towns get a broader picture of the university.

Other recruitment efforts ongoing now or planned for the future include slide presentations and a full film about the campus.

Development continues on a continuing education program for the university to attract the student who is not necessarily degree-oriented.

"I think one of the greatest areas we have in the retention of students is concentrating on doing a better job of retaining students from fall to spring," he said. "On the other hand I think we can stabilize our enrollment on the kind of student coming in now."

Turning to what the chamber can do to help increase student enrollment at the university, Laycock said one of the most important things anyone associated with the university can do is to emphasize the good things about WTSU.

"I hope we can begin to emphasize the plusses of the university and there are many," he said. "But, sometimes we undersell these while magnifying what's wrong."

Laycock said the university may call on the chamber to supply manpower to aid its efforts.

He said financial assistance would also be used to help defray travel expenses and expenses for printing brochures and pamphlets.

"It's amazing how much a little more can help," he said.

In closing, Laycock said he is optimistic.

"I'm certainly pleased with what's happened to this point," he said.

serve on the committee.

Among those named were Bernard Warren, Ray Gardner, Benny Cooper, Dick Scott, Jim Martin, Steve Butler, Ken Thompson, Jerry Williams and Charlotte McClure.

In other business, the chamber board approved a 1972 financial statement, which showed total income in 1972 of $18,328 and total expenditures during the year of $17,129.

Balance as of Dec. 31 was $1,199.

The board also reviewed preparations for the upcoming chamber of commerce Bald Eagles versus KGNC Four Flushers basketball game which is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Jan. 25 at the high school gym.

Tickets for the game are available from the chamber office or from directors for $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

They noted that money received through the basketball game will help defray costs to replace the current "TEXAS" show flags which line main streets in Canyon during the summer months with state flags.

Directors also noted that plans continue for the annual chamber banquet which will be at 7 p.m. Feb. 15 in the east cafeteria at West Texas State University.

Keith Jackson, sports commentator for ABC television network, will be guest speaker for the banquet.

John Childs, chairman of the membership committee, said the recent membership drive netted 23 individual members and five new business memberships or an additional annual income of about $1000.

Chamber president Raymond Raillard said directors will vote at their February meeting on the 1972 Canyon citizen of the year. Recommendations for nominations will be solicited from the various clubs in the city.
